Experience Scotland's working sheepdogs

Private sheepdog demonstrations on a real family farm in the heart of rural Fife.

"This is as authentic as it gets."
Gayle & Freya, visitor review

The Remarkable Border Collie

Discover the remarkable Border Collie, a breed shaped by generations of Scottish farming. Learn how intelligence, instinct and training combine to create one of the world's most skilled working dogs.

Your experience

Your own private farm experience

No two visits are exactly the same.

Farm stories and local heritage

Real life, real livelihood, real love for sheep

Meet the shepherd and host family

Generations of farming experience and unique stories to tell

Meet the dogs and ask questions

Learn about modern farming, sheepdog training and life in the Scottish countryside.

Photography opportunities

In the beautiful countryside at the heart of the Kingdom of Fife

Rural and Real

Step beyond the tourist trail and discover life on a working Scottish sheep farm. Stand beside the shepherd as skilled Border Collies respond to whistles and commands, gathering the flock across the fields with remarkable precision. Meet the shepherd, hear stories from life on the farm and enjoy a side of Scotland that many visitors never see. This is Scotland beyond the castles and city streets.

Relaxed, personal and genuinely authentic, every visit offers a unique glimpse into rural Scottish life.

Family Run Farm

Demonstrations are led by father and son David and Daniel Henderson. Daniel has grown up working with sheep and sheepdogs on the family farm and enjoys sharing his knowledge with visitors.
You will enjoy hearing first-hand about sheepdog training, modern farming and the unique relationship between shepherd and dog.
This is not a scripted attraction. Every visit is shaped by the questions and interests of the guests who join us.
